Polly enjoyed being team mother of her children's teams, coaching beginning bowlers in the "Polly's Parrots" league, dancing, working word search puzzles, and bowling. She loved her cats and travelling with her husband to softball tournaments - keeping score and being a faithful fan.

Friends and acquaintances attended a memorial service held January 18, 2013, at the Niles Discovery Church, 255 H St., Fremont, CA (located in the Niles district). In lieu of flowers, donations in Polly's honor can be made to the Odyssey Hospice, 6140 Stoneridge Mall, Suite 175, Pleasanton, CA 94588.
