

Claudia Carolyn Love Cortez Sonnenfelt

29 March 1935 – 6 January 2004

Claudia Carolyn Love was born 29 March 1935 in Omaha, Nebraska, into a military family. Her father was career Navy, serving through WWII and Korea. The family migrated to the Bay Area when the Navy transferred her father to Hunter's Point in San Francisco. After a short tour, the family settled near Camp Parks AFB where Claudia completed her secondary education. After several years of local employment, she went to work for the California Air National Guard at the old Hayward location in November 1957. Claudia worked as a stock records clerk in Base Supply, retiring in July 1978 prior to the ANG's move to Moffett Field. Claudia passed away 6 January 2004, and as was her wish, her ashes were dispersed over Tuolumne County. She was preceded in death by her daughters Suzanne Christine and Michele Marie. Claudia leaves Frank, her loving husband of 46 years and a multitude of friends.
