Warning to Veterans

Forwarded by Kevin Secor

VSO Liaison

Office of the Secretary of the Department of Veterans Affairs

An organization called Veterans Affairs Services (VAS) is providing benefit and general information on VA and gathering personal information on veterans.

This organization is not affiliated with VA in any way.

<http://www.vaservices.org/us/index.html>

VAS may be gaining access to military personnel through their close resemblance to the VA name and seal. Our legal counsel has requested that we coordinate with DoD to inform military installations, particularly mobilization sites, of this group and their lack of affiliation or endorsement by VA to provide any services.

In addition, general counsel requests that if you have any examples of VAS acts that violate chapter 59 of Title 38 United States Code, such as VAS employees assisting veterans in the preparation and presentation of claims for benefits, please pass any additional information to Mr. Daugherty at the address below:

COL John L. Ruppel, Jr. (Ret.)

Col Wayne Albright's September retirement led to several Wing leadership changes. Lt Col Steve Butow has been appointed the new Vice Commander. Col Butow was the Wing Air Operations Officer and the Assistant Operations Group Commander prior to assuming the Vice Commander position.

Lt Col Jeffery Magram has been appointed as the Wing Logistic Group Commander. Col Magram has previously served as an aircrew member and held several Wing staff positions. Prior to assuming the Logistic Commander position he served on the California Air Guard Headquarters staff.

The Association will hold a 2011 election for the four Board Directors. The Newsletter's publication opens the nomination period for the Director election. Election details and nomination procedures are contained in the Newsletter.

The Association was notified of the passing of SSgt John D. "Jack" Smith and Lt Col Frank Oddo. The Wing announced the death of MSgt Kenneth Warwick. The Newsletter contains obituaries for them.

The Newsletter contains several articles of interest to Association members obtained from the Air Force News Service and the Veterans Administration.

The annual Old Timers' Luncheon is scheduled for Wednesday, March 23, 2011, at the Castro Valley Moose Lodge. The February Newsletter will contain reservation and direction information. This would be a good time to save the date!

The 2011 dues assessment is due January 2011. A dues notice will be mailed in January to members who haven't prepaid 2011 dues. If you intend to attend the annual luncheon, dues can be included with the reservation or paid at the luncheon.

The Board extends Holiday Greetings and wishes you and yours a prosperous New Year!

Cheers!

John

Board Election

March 2011

An election for the three at-large Directors is scheduled for 2011. The AHA Corporation Bylaws proscribe that Directors are elected in odd number years (2011) and Officers are elected in even number years (2012).

The AHA President, John Ruppel, will appoint an Election Committee composed of the Vice President, Steve James; the Secretary-Treasurer, Dave Russell; Newsletter Editor, Lynda Fawcett; and an association member at large, James Rommelfanger. The committee will be responsible for gathering nominations, distributing, collecting, and counting the ballots. The newly elected Directors will be announced at the Association's annual meeting, the Annual Old Timers' Lunch, scheduled for Wednesday, March 23, 2011.

Any AHA member in good standing may serve as a Director. Individuals interested in serving as a Director should complete the form included in this newsletter. Return the completed form (or a reasonable facsimile) no later than January 14, 2011, to:

Col John Ruppel
6718 Zerillo Drive
Riverbank, CA 95367-2122

Nominations must be postmarked by January 14, 2011, to be valid. All nominations will be included on the ballot. Ballots, a self-addressed stamped postcard, will be mailed to all members, with the next edition of the newsletter, in early February. There is no write-in provision. Ballots must be returned with a postmark no later than March 18, 2011, to be valid. The three nominees with the highest number of votes will be declared Directors, and will be announced and begin their two-year term at the Old Timers' Luncheon.

2011 COLA for Retired Pay

2011 COLA Watch: The Federal Government announced that the 2011 Cost of Living Adjustment (COLA) for military retirees, disabled veterans, and social security recipients will be zero for the second year in a row.

COLA Explained: Each year Military Retirement pay, VA Compensation and Pensions, and Social Security benefits are adjusted for the rate of inflation. This annual Cost of Living Adjustment is determined by the Consumer Price Index for the previous year. In a normal cycle the CPI for a given year is compared to the previous year to determine the actual rate of inflation. However, since 2008 was the last year the rate of inflation was positive, it is the baseline for determining the 2010 rate of inflation.

For example, the 2011 COLA will be based on the 2010 rate of inflation. The 2010 rate of inflation was -0.1% when compared to 2008, therefore there will be no COLA for Fiscal Year 2011.

Note: Retiree Cost of Living Adjustment (COLA) differs from the Active Duty Cost of Living Allowance which is paid based on the cost of living in a given high-cost locality. This number will be released in late December.

More on Retiree COLA from DFAS:

Cost-of-Living Increases: Perhaps the most common change to retiree pay accounts are the Cost-of-Living (COLA) increases. Currently, federal law authorizes periodic increases to reflect rises in the Consumer Price Index (CPI). COLA increases impact your monthly gross pay, federal withholding tax, SBP premiums and annuities. While DFAS does not establish COLA increases, the agency does apply any authorized increases to your pay, SBP premiums and other account information.

COLA is applied depending on your date of entry into the armed forces and your date of retirement. If you entered service on or after Sept. 8, 1980, and became eligible for retired pay on or after Jan. 1, 1996, any authorized COLA will be decreased during your first calendar year of retirement. Full COLA increases will be applied for all subsequent years.

Retirees who entered military service on or after Aug. 1, 1986, will have any authorized COLA increases reduced by 1 percent.

VA Extends Coverage for Gulf War Veterans

by Donna Miles

American Forces Press Service

WASHINGTON (AFRNS) -- Veterans of the first Gulf War as well as current operations in Iraq and Afghanistan now have a smoother path toward receiving health-care benefits and disability compensation for nine diseases associated with their military service, announced Secretary of Veterans Affairs Eric K. Shinseki.

A final regulation published in the Sept. 29 Federal Register relieves veterans of the burden of proving these diseases are service-related: Brucellosis, Campylobacter jejuni, Coxiella Burnetii (Q fever), Malaria, Mycobacterium tuberculosis, Nontyphoid Salmonella, Shigella, Visceral leishmaniasis, and West Nile virus.

Secretary Shinseki added the new presumptions after reviewing a 2006 National Academy of Sciences Institute of Medicine report on the long-term health effects of certain diseases suffered among Gulf War veterans. He also extended the presumptions to veterans of Afghanistan, based on NAS findings that the nine diseases are prevalent there as well. The new presumptions apply to veterans who served in Southwest Asia beginning on or after the start of Operation Desert Shield on Aug. 2, 1990, through Operation Desert Storm to the present, including the current conflict in Iraq. Veterans who served in Afghanistan on or after Sept. 19, 2001, also qualify.

For Secretary Shinseki, who pledged to honor the 20th anniversary of the Gulf War by improving health-care access and benefits for its 697,000 veterans, the new presumptions represent a long-overdue step in addressing the medical challenges many face. "This is part of historic changes in how VA considers Gulf War veterans' illnesses," he said. "By setting up scientifically based presumptions of service connection, we give these deserving veterans a simple way to obtain the benefits they earned in service to our country."

The new presumptions initially are expected to affect nearly 2,000 veterans who have been diagnosed with the nine specified diseases, John Gingrich, VA's chief of staff, told American Forces Press Service. He acknowledged that the numbers are likely to climb as more cases are identified.

With the final rule, a veteran needs only to show service in Southwest Asia or Afghanistan during the specified time periods to receive disability compensation, subject to certain time limits based on incubation periods for seven of the diseases. "It gives them easier access to quality health care and compensation benefits," Mr. Gingrich said. "The message behind that is that the VA is striving to make access to health care easier for our veterans who have served in our combat zones." He expressed hope that by providing quick, easy access, VA will help veterans get the care they need early on, without having to fight the bureaucracy. "When we find these presumptions and we reach out and get the veterans into our system, we can help them and give them the proper medical care they need, and maybe keep their disease from getting worse or getting it to go away altogether," he said. It also will help eliminate the piles of paperwork and long claims adjudication process veterans had to go through to prove their cases to receive care and benefits. "This will help break the back of the backlog in the long run, while sending a reassuring message to veterans that the VA is there for them," Mr. Gingrich said. He called the new presumptions part of Secretary Shinseki's effort to "create a culture of advocacy" within VA that builds trust as it reaches out to veterans.

For Mr. Gingrich, a Gulf War veteran himself, the effort is very personal. He remembers being deployed as a 1st Infantry Division field artillery battalion commander during Operation Desert Storm, when one of his officers became very sick with an illness nobody could diagnose. "The medics couldn't diagnose it. We called in the doctors and they couldn't diagnose it. And eventually, he had to be medevaced back," he recalled. "And now here we are, 20 years later, and I saw him in Dallas in August, and he is still sick. You can't identify all the reasons and symptoms, but he is sick." Veterans deserve better, Mr. Gingrich insisted. "I believe that our veterans that served in uniform for our country deserve the absolute best care and benefits that we can provide," he said.

VA provides compensation and pension benefits to more than 3.8 million veterans and beneficiaries, and received more than 1 million claims last year alone, VA officials reported. Veterans without dependents receive a basic monthly compensation ranging from $123 to $2,673.

America's Christmas Tree

by Angela Posey-Arnold

Wednesday, November 14, 2007

A poem for our troops
OOORAH from the aunt of a Marine.

I got the gift you sent me,
Today as I watched the news.
It was so beautiful wrapped in camouflage,
And elegant in the dress Blues.

I opened it prayerfully and carefully
Because I know it is true
That you have given a gift to me
Just by being you.

Thankful I am for the strength you have
The braveness and courage too
The sacrifice that you make for us
So we can stand free for the Red White and Blue.

This country and I are so grateful
For the brave and right that you do.
For Christmas this year we give you a gift
Of our hearts and prayers, support too.

When we see each other again real soon
Directly face to face
But the best gift I get this Christmas
Is to know you fight with Grace.

Grace is a gift that is given
To us from God above
It is free for just the asking
Just because of His great love.

You fight for our country and for me
With honor and loyalty
You give us a gift we can never repay
Our right to be proud and free.

So this year just remember
As you eat your MREs
You are the greatest gift
Under America's Christmas tree.

God Bless You. God be with you and send His mighty angels to look over you.
May God make His face to shine upon you and give you rest.

Gift Cards Ensure No Airman Is Left Behind This Holiday Season

DALLAS (AFRNS) -- A favorite time of year for thousands of military members serving overseas is just around the corner. While the holiday season and the gifts that accompany them always bring a sense of joy, time is running out for those considering sending mail to troops in Afghanistan and Iraq.

According to the Military Postal Service Agency, "space-available" mail should be postmarked no later than Nov. 26; parcel airlift mail, Dec. 3; priority and first-class mail, letters and cards, Dec. 10; and express mail military service, Dec. 18.

Regardless of the date sent, the Army and Air Force Exchange Service offers fast, easy and convenient gift cards (<http://www.flickr.com/photos/aafespa/5182576790/>) that anyone can include in a package or even have sent directly to loved ones serving overseas. Exchange gift cards can be used at stores, ranging from 900 to 24,000 square feet, that have all the candy bars, protein shakes and magazines a servicemember could desire. The exchange has also partnered with food vendors such as Subway, Burger King and Pizza Hut to ensure troops get a taste of home.

The exchange's infrastructure makes the gift cards both convenient for those looking to send support and the deployed troops who receive it. In fact, the exchange has developed partnerships with organizations including the American Red Cross and United Service Organizations to ensure donated gift cards reach servicemembers who need them.

"For many deployed servicemembers, a package is the closest they will get to their family this holiday season," said Colonel Williams, the exchange's chief of staff. "Exchange gift cards are a great way to ensure Soldiers, Sailors, Airmen and Marines are able to get what they want at any of 81 stores and more than 200 food vendors in contingency locations including Afghanistan and Iraq."

Friends, family, and even civic groups can send exchange gift cards ranging from $10 to $500 by calling 800-527-2345. or logging on to <https://shop.aafes.com/gcs/default.aspx>. (Courtesy of AAFES)
